

The Intelligencer.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wheeling, W. Va., as second-class matter.

FREW & CAMPBELL.
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 18.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:
JAMES A. GARFIELD,
OF OHIO.FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.Presidential Electors.
ELECTORS AT LARGE:
A. W. CAMPBELL, of Ohio County.
JAS. L. McLEAN, of Putnam County.CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT ELECTORS:
1st—JOHN A. CAMPBELL, Hancock County.
2d—A. M. FORD, Lincoln County.
3d—B. McNEAL, Mason County.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:
GEO. C. STUBBS, of Monongalia.SUPERINTENDENT OF FREE SCHOOLS:
A. L. FULFORD, of Wood.ATTORNEY GENERAL:
GEO. B. CALDWELL, of Ohio.AUDITOR:
JOHN S. CUNNINGHAM, of Kanawha.TREASURER:
RICHARD BUCKLEY, of Monroe.SPEAKER OF HOUSE:
EDWIN MAXWELL, of Harrison.FOR COMMISSIONERS:
1st District—JOHN A. HUTCHINSON, of Wood.
2d District—J. T. HOKK, of Mineral.The Constitutional Amendments.
Constitutional Amendment, Article eight—For Ratification.

Constitutional Amendment, Section thirteen, Article three—For Ratification.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

SHERIFF:
GEORGE H. PARKER, of Hancock.PROSECUTOR GENERAL:
T. J. HOGUE, of Hancock.ASSASSOR, CITY DISTRICT:
C. A. HELMBRIGHT, of Hancock.ASSASSOR, COUNTRY DISTRICT:
R. M. ARMSTRONG, of Hancock.NOTES ON THE ELECTIONS:
W. P. HUBBARD, of Hancock.

C. D. THOMPSON, of Hancock.

JOHN FREW, of Hancock.

SIMON L. McCOLLICH, of Hancock.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Harpers Ferry, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Gen. N. G. Goff, Jr., Hon. John A. Campbell and Hon. D. C. Felt.

Weaver, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Helen, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Middlebourne, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Beverly, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Cape, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Bellingham, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Hanson, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Harrison, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Dover, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Stonewall, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

New Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

Martinsburg, August 18, Hon. George C. Sturges and Hon. John A. Campbell.

made a note in their minds as to his confidence of great partial or total success in Alabama. He had but one foreboding in the matter, and that was as to whether there would be a fair vote and a fair count. If there could be a fair vote and a fair count, he felt confident of great success.

Well, the election has come and gone, and the Democratic majority is overwhelming—simply immense. The Greenbackers were swept out of existence. If they polled their strength it must have been so very small as to be scarcely appreciable. If they polled a large vote, where is it? It certainly does not appear in the returns. The National View, the Greenback organ of the party at Washington, says that fraud and intimidation ruled the election, and that the Greenbackers were simply bulldozed and defrauded.

Well, grant that this was the case. What is the remedy? Is it to divide the opposition to the Solid South and the Democratic party, and thus assist that organization to crush out all manner of opposition to their complete supremacy throughout the South?

We put this question to the men who call themselves Greenbackers in this Congressional district. They have no more chance to elect a candidate to Congress here than they have to elect one in Ohio. They can help elect Colonel Wilson, and that is all they can do. Every vote for Bassell is, as it was in 1878, an indirect vote for Colonel Wilson. The returns show that Bassell's vote united to Hubbard's would have elected the latter, and that Colonel Wilson really went to Congress by a minority vote.

Once elected to Congress, Colonel Wilson is a supporter of the Solid South. He and his party are responsible for the state of affairs in the South to-day. And certainly neither he nor his party have any claims on West Virginia Greenbackers after crushing them out so effectually in the Alabama election.

Is it not then a matter of the first importance to Greenbackers, as well as Republicans, that the power of the Solid South be broken? Unless this can be done, Greenbackism has no more chance there than Republicanism. The Democratic party is the foe of both. It has crushed out both in Alabama.

Col. Wilson stands on a hard money platform in this campaign. The convention that nominated him indorsed that hard money platform. It did not dare to renew a single one of its old declarations on the subject of greenbacks. It went clear back on its platform of two years ago. It also endorsed the free trade plank of the Cincinnati platform. Not a word do you find in the resolutions passed by the convention that renominated Col. Wilson in favor of a tariff. They accept the free trade platform adopted at Cincinnati as the creed of the party in this district.

Why then should any Greenbacker in this district cast, as in 1878, an indirect vote for Col. Wilson, by fooling away his vote on Col. Bassell? This is just what a vote for the latter amounts to. Bassell will not vote as many votes as in 1878, but all that he gets will simply accrue to the benefit of the representative of a party that has crushed out Greenbackism in Alabama, that has gone back on its financial principles, and has declared for free trade.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

The Republican Meeting on Monday—Personal News and Gossip.

FAIRVIEW, August 16.

Editors Intelligencer:

County Court met here yesterday; there were a good many in attendance. The people of Hancock are getting very tired of the County Court system and long for a change.

The Republicans of Hancock met yesterday at the Court House to hear the Hon. C. D. Hubbard and George C. Sturges discuss the political situation. There were a great many Republicans present. We also noticed some Democrats. The County Court adjourned at 2 P. M., giving their reason for the adjournment of the meeting. Hon. George C. Sturges spoke one hour and thirty-seven minutes, and his speech was a grand effort, and well received. He made many friends while here who will remember him in October next. Hon. C. D. Hubbard spoke for twenty-five minutes, and was also well received by all. They both spoke in New Cumberland Town Hall last night.

There are a few members of Carlin's battery residing here, and they all expect to attend the reunion in your city on the 20th of this month. We bespeak for them a pleasant time.

Doc Caldwell, of Wellburg, is attending Court here this week. The doctor has a large practice here.

The festival that was held here on last Tuesday night was a grand affair. There were about four hundred people present. The receipts were $221.78. We think that a grand showing for a country town.

Mr. Cyrus Beall and James Stray, of our town, paid a visit to their friend Geo. P. Dever, of Frankfort, Pa., last Sunday. William Dever and wife, of New Cumberland, were visiting Mrs. Beall last week.

We hear that the Hon. Thomas Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver a political speech here some time soon.

There has not been any break made in the wool market here as yet. Farmers are still holding firm.

Miss Lizzie Caldwell, of Burgetstown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Silverthorn, of our town, last week.

Miss Sarah Andrews, of Salineville, Ohio, is visiting at Mrs. Flower's this week.

The Democrats held their primaries on last Saturday, and appointed delegates to meet in County Convention in Martinsburg next Saturday to nominate county officers. We believe this is the first time in the history of our county that their nominations were made before the Republicans.

We heard a Democrat from our county, who was at the convention held in Wheeling last week, say that it was the most disgraceful meeting he ever attended, and that he never wanted to attend another such.

H. Y. B.

VIRGINIA.

The Democracy all Turn Up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—Representative Jorgensen, of Virginia, who is here, brings very enthusiastic news as to Republican prospects in that State. Mr. Jorgensen is so confident, indeed, that he predicts that Garfield will secure the Electoral vote of Virginia. Mr. Jorgensen's confidence, moreover, is not to be ascribed fully to the real of the Republican party, inasmuch as a leading Democratic paper, in its issue of last Friday, is of the very same opinion. The Standard, of Abingdon, Va., a Democratic paper published in a Congressional district that has about 12,000 Democratic majority, an acknowledged made a note in their minds as to his confidence of great partial or total success in Alabama. He had but one foreboding in the matter, and that was as to whether there would be a fair vote and a fair count. If there could be a fair vote and a fair count, he felt confident of great success.

Well, the election has come and gone, and the Democratic majority is overwhelming—simply immense. The Greenbackers were swept out of existence. If they polled their strength it must have been so very small as to be scarcely appreciable. If they polled a large vote, where is it? It certainly does not appear in the returns. The National View, the Greenback organ of the party at Washington, says that fraud and intimidation ruled the election, and that the Greenbackers were simply bulldozed and defrauded.

Well, grant that this was the case. What is the remedy? Is it to divide the opposition to the Solid South and the Democratic party, and thus assist that organization to crush out all manner of opposition to their complete supremacy throughout the South?

We put this question to the men who call themselves Greenbackers in this Congressional district. They have no more chance to elect a candidate to Congress here than they have to elect one in Ohio. They can help elect Colonel Wilson, and that is all they can do. Every vote for Bassell is, as it was in 1878, an indirect vote for Colonel Wilson. The returns show that Bassell's vote united to Hubbard's would have elected the latter, and that Colonel Wilson really went to Congress by a minority vote.

Once elected to Congress, Colonel Wilson is a supporter of the Solid South. He and his party are responsible for the state of affairs in the South to-day. And certainly neither he nor his party have any claims on West Virginia Greenbackers after crushing them out so effectually in the Alabama election.

Is it not then a matter of the first importance to Greenbackers, as well as Republicans, that the power of the Solid South be broken? Unless this can be done, Greenbackism has no more chance there than Republicanism. The Democratic party is the foe of both. It has crushed out both in Alabama.

Col. Wilson stands on a hard money platform in this campaign. The convention that nominated him indorsed that hard money platform. It did not dare to renew a single one of its old declarations on the subject of greenbacks. It went clear back on its platform of two years ago. It also endorsed the free trade plank of the Cincinnati platform. Not a word do you find in the resolutions passed by the convention that renominated Col. Wilson in favor of a tariff. They accept the free trade platform adopted at Cincinnati as the creed of the party in this district.

Why then should any Greenbacker in this district cast, as in 1878, an indirect vote for Col. Wilson, by fooling away his vote on Col. Bassell? This is just what a vote for the latter amounts to. Bassell will not vote as many votes as in 1878, but all that he gets will simply accrue to the benefit of the representative of a party that has crushed out Greenbackism in Alabama, that has gone back on its financial principles, and has declared for free trade.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

The Republican Meeting on Monday—Personal News and Gossip.

FAIRVIEW, August 16.

Editors Intelligencer:

County Court met here yesterday; there were a good many in attendance. The people of Hancock are getting very tired of the County Court system and long for a change.

The Republicans of Hancock met yesterday at the Court House to hear the Hon. C. D. Hubbard and George C. Sturges discuss the political situation. There were a great many Republicans present. We also noticed some Democrats. The County Court adjourned at 2 P. M., giving their reason for the adjournment of the meeting. Hon. George C. Sturges spoke one hour and thirty-seven minutes, and his speech was a grand effort, and well received. He made many friends while here who will remember him in October next. Hon. C. D. Hubbard spoke for twenty-five minutes, and was also well received by all. They both spoke in New Cumberland Town Hall last night.

There are a few members of Carlin's battery residing here, and they all expect to attend the reunion in your city on the 20th of this month. We bespeak for them a pleasant time.

Doc Caldwell, of Wellburg, is attending Court here this week. The doctor has a large practice here.

The festival that was held here on last Tuesday night was a grand affair. There were about four hundred people present. The receipts were $221.78. We think that a grand showing for a country town.

Mr. Cyrus Beall and James Stray, of our town, paid a visit to their friend Geo. P. Dever, of Frankfort, Pa., last Sunday. William Dever and wife, of New Cumberland, were visiting Mrs. Beall last week.

We hear that the Hon. Thomas Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver a political speech here some time soon.

There has not been any break made in the wool market here as yet. Farmers are still holding firm.

Miss Lizzie Caldwell, of Burgetstown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Silverthorn, of our town, last week.

Miss Sarah Andrews, of Salineville, Ohio, is visiting at Mrs. Flower's this week.

The Democrats held their primaries on last Saturday, and appointed delegates to meet in County Convention in Martinsburg next Saturday to nominate county officers. We believe this is the first time in the history of our county that their nominations were made before the Republicans.

We heard a Democrat from our county, who was at the convention held in Wheeling last week, say that it was the most disgraceful meeting he ever attended, and that he never wanted to attend another such.

H. Y. B.

VIRGINIA.

The Democracy all Turn Up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—Representative Jorgensen, of Virginia, who is here, brings very enthusiastic news as to Republican prospects in that State. Mr. Jorgensen is so confident, indeed, that he predicts that Garfield will secure the Electoral vote of Virginia. Mr. Jorgensen's confidence, moreover, is not to be ascribed fully to the real of the Republican party, inasmuch as a leading Democratic paper, in its issue of last Friday, is of the very same opinion. The Standard, of Abingdon, Va., a Democratic paper published in a Congressional district that has about 12,000 Democratic majority, an acknowledged made a note in their minds as to his confidence of great partial or total success in Alabama. He had but one foreboding in the matter, and that was as to whether there would be a fair vote and a fair count. If there could be a fair vote and a fair count, he felt confident of great success.

Well, the election has come and gone, and the Democratic majority is overwhelming—simply immense. The Greenbackers were swept out of existence. If they polled their strength it must have been so very small as to be scarcely appreciable. If they polled a large vote, where is it? It certainly does not appear in the returns. The National View, the Greenback organ of the party at Washington, says that fraud and intimidation ruled the election, and that the Greenbackers were simply bulldozed and defrauded.

Well, grant that this was the case. What is the remedy? Is it to divide the opposition to the Solid South and the Democratic party, and thus assist that organization to crush out all manner of opposition to their complete supremacy throughout the South?

We put this question to the men who call themselves Greenbackers in this Congressional district. They have no more chance to elect a candidate to Congress here than they have to elect one in Ohio. They can help elect Colonel Wilson, and that is all they can do. Every vote for Bassell is, as it was in 1878, an indirect vote for Colonel Wilson. The returns show that Bassell's vote united to Hubbard's would have elected the latter, and that Colonel Wilson really went to Congress by a minority vote.

Once elected to Congress, Colonel Wilson is a supporter of the Solid South. He and his party are responsible for the state of affairs in the South to-day. And certainly neither he nor his party have any claims on West Virginia Greenbackers after crushing them out so effectually in the Alabama election.

Is it not then a matter of the first importance to Greenbackers, as well as Republicans, that the power of the Solid South be broken? Unless this can be done, Greenbackism has no more chance there than Republicanism. The Democratic party is the foe of both. It has crushed out both in Alabama.

Col. Wilson stands on a hard money platform in this campaign. The convention that nominated him indorsed that hard money platform. It did not dare to renew a single one of its old declarations on the subject of greenbacks. It went clear back on its platform of two years ago. It also endorsed the free trade plank of the Cincinnati platform. Not a word do you find in the resolutions passed by the convention that renominated Col. Wilson in favor of a tariff. They accept the free trade platform adopted at Cincinnati as the creed of the party in this district.

Why then should any Greenbacker in this district cast, as in 1878, an indirect vote for Col. Wilson, by fooling away his vote on Col. Bassell? This is just what a vote for the latter amounts to. Bassell will not vote as many votes as in 1878, but all that he gets will simply accrue to the benefit of the representative of a party that has crushed out Greenbackism in Alabama, that has gone back on its financial principles, and has declared for free trade.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

The Republican Meeting on Monday—Personal News and Gossip.

FAIRVIEW, August 16.

Editors Intelligencer:

County Court met here yesterday; there were a good many in attendance. The people of Hancock are getting very tired of the County Court system and long for a change.

The Republicans of Hancock met yesterday at the Court House to hear the Hon. C. D. Hubbard and George C. Sturges discuss the political situation. There were a great many Republicans present. We also noticed some Democrats. The County Court adjourned at 2 P. M., giving their reason for the adjournment of the meeting. Hon. George C. Sturges spoke one hour and thirty-seven minutes, and his speech was a grand effort, and well received. He made many friends while here who will remember him in October next. Hon. C. D. Hubbard spoke for twenty-five minutes, and was also well received by all. They both spoke in New Cumberland Town Hall last night.

There are a few members of Carlin's battery residing here, and they all expect to attend the reunion in your city on the 20th of this month. We bespeak for them a pleasant time.

Doc Caldwell, of Wellburg, is attending Court here this week. The doctor has a large practice here.

The festival that was held here on last Tuesday night was a grand affair. There were about four hundred people present. The receipts were $221.78. We think that a grand showing for a country town.

Mr. Cyrus Beall and James Stray, of our town, paid a visit to their friend Geo. P. Dever, of Frankfort, Pa., last Sunday. William Dever and wife, of New Cumberland, were visiting Mrs. Beall last week.

We hear that the Hon. Thomas Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver a political speech here some time soon.

There has not been any break made in the wool market here as yet. Farmers are still holding firm.

Miss Lizzie Caldwell, of Burgetstown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Silverthorn, of our town, last week.

Miss Sarah Andrews, of Salineville, Ohio, is visiting at Mrs. Flower's this week.

The Democrats held their primaries on last Saturday, and appointed delegates to meet in County Convention in Martinsburg next Saturday to nominate county officers. We believe this is the first time in the history of our county that their nominations were made before the Republicans.

We heard a Democrat from our county, who was at the convention held in Wheeling last week, say that it was the most disgraceful meeting he ever attended, and that he never wanted to attend another such.

H. Y. B.

VIRGINIA.

The Democracy all Turn Up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—Representative Jorgensen, of Virginia, who is here, brings very enthusiastic news as to Republican prospects in that State. Mr. Jorgensen is so confident, indeed, that he predicts that Garfield will secure the Electoral vote of Virginia. Mr. Jorgensen's confidence, moreover, is not to be ascribed fully to the real of the Republican party, inasmuch as a leading Democratic paper, in its issue of last Friday, is of the very same opinion. The Standard, of Abingdon, Va., a Democratic paper published in a Congressional district that has about 12,000 Democratic majority, an acknowledged made a note in their minds as to his confidence of great partial or total success in Alabama. He had but one foreboding in the matter, and that was as to whether there would be a fair vote and a fair count. If there could be a fair vote and a fair count, he felt confident of great success.

Well, the election has come and gone, and the Democratic majority is overwhelming—simply immense. The Greenbackers were swept out of existence. If they polled their strength it must have been so very small as to be scarcely appreciable. If they polled a large vote, where is it? It certainly does not appear in the returns. The National View, the Greenback organ of the party at Washington, says that fraud and intimidation ruled the election, and that the Greenbackers were simply bulldozed and defrauded.

Well, grant that this was the case. What is the remedy? Is it to divide the opposition to the Solid South and the Democratic party, and thus assist that organization to crush out all manner of opposition to their complete supremacy throughout the South?

We put this question to the men who call themselves Greenbackers in this Congressional district. They have no more chance to elect a candidate to Congress here than they have to elect one in Ohio. They can help elect Colonel Wilson, and that is all they can do. Every vote for Bassell is, as it was in 1878, an indirect vote for Colonel Wilson. The returns show that Bassell's vote united to Hubbard's would have elected the latter, and that Colonel Wilson really went to Congress by a minority vote.

Once elected to Congress, Colonel Wilson is a supporter of the Solid South. He and his party are responsible for the state of affairs in the South to-day. And certainly neither he nor his party have any claims on West Virginia Greenbackers after crushing them out so effectually in the Alabama election.

Is it not then a matter of the first importance to Greenbackers, as well as Republicans, that the power of the Solid South be broken? Unless this can be done, Greenbackism has no more chance there than Republicanism. The Democratic party is the foe of both. It has crushed out both in Alabama.

Col. Wilson stands on a hard money platform in this campaign. The convention that nominated him indorsed that hard money platform. It did not dare to renew a single one of its old declarations on the subject of greenbacks. It went clear back on its platform of two years ago. It also endorsed the free trade plank of the Cincinnati platform. Not a word do you find in the resolutions passed by the convention that renominated Col. Wilson in favor of a tariff. They accept the free trade platform adopted at Cincinnati as the creed of the party in this district.

Why then should any Greenbacker in this district cast, as in 1878, an indirect vote for Col. Wilson, by fooling away his vote on Col. Bassell? This is just what a vote for the latter amounts to. Bassell will not vote as many votes as in 1878, but all that he gets will simply accrue to the benefit of the representative of a party that has crushed out Greenbackism in Alabama, that has gone back on its financial principles, and has declared for free trade.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

The Republican Meeting on Monday—Personal News and Gossip.

FAIRVIEW, August 16.

Editors Intelligencer:

County Court met here yesterday; there were a good many in attendance. The people of Hancock are getting very tired of the County Court system and long for a change.

The Republicans of Hancock met yesterday at the Court House to hear the Hon. C. D. Hubbard and George C. Sturges discuss the political situation. There were a great many Republicans present. We also noticed some Democrats. The County Court adjourned at 2 P. M., giving their reason for the adjournment of the meeting. Hon. George C. Sturges spoke one hour and thirty-seven minutes, and his speech was a grand effort, and well received. He made many friends while here who will remember him in October next. Hon. C. D. Hubbard spoke for twenty-five minutes, and was also well received by all. They both spoke in New Cumberland Town Hall last night.

There are a few members of Carlin's battery residing here, and they all expect to attend the reunion in your city on the 20th of this month. We bespeak for them a pleasant time.

Doc Caldwell, of Wellburg, is attending Court here this week. The doctor has a large practice here.

The festival that was held here on last Tuesday night was a grand affair. There were about four hundred people present. The receipts were $221.78. We think that a grand showing for a country town.

Mr. Cyrus Beall and James Stray, of our town, paid a visit to their friend Geo. P. Dever, of Frankfort, Pa., last Sunday. William Dever and wife, of New Cumberland, were visiting Mrs. Beall last week.

We hear that the Hon. Thomas Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver a political speech here some time soon.

There has not been any break made in the wool market here as yet. Farmers are still holding firm.

Miss Lizzie Caldwell, of Burgetstown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Silverthorn, of our town, last week.

Miss Sarah Andrews, of Salineville, Ohio, is visiting at Mrs. Flower's this week.

The Democrats held their primaries on last Saturday, and appointed delegates to meet in County Convention in Martinsburg next Saturday to nominate county officers. We believe this is the first time in the history of our county that their nominations were made before the Republicans.

We heard a Democrat from our county, who was at the convention held in Wheeling last week, say that it was the most disgraceful meeting he ever attended, and that he never wanted to attend another such.

H. Y. B.

VIRGINIA.

The Democracy all Turn Up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—Representative Jorgensen, of Virginia, who is here, brings very enthusiastic news as to Republican prospects in that State. Mr. Jorgensen is so confident, indeed, that he predicts that Garfield will secure the Electoral vote of Virginia. Mr. Jorgensen's confidence, moreover, is not to be ascribed fully to the real of the Republican party, inasmuch as a leading Democratic paper, in its issue of last Friday, is of the very same opinion. The Standard, of Abingdon, Va., a Democratic paper published in a Congressional district that has about 12,000 Democratic majority, an acknowledged made a note in their minds as to his confidence of great partial or total success in Alabama. He had but one foreboding in the matter, and that was as to whether there would be a fair vote and a fair count. If there could be a fair vote and a fair count, he felt confident of great success.

Well, the election has come and gone, and the Democratic majority is overwhelming—simply immense. The Greenbackers were swept out of existence. If they polled their strength it must have been so very small as to be scarcely appreciable. If they polled a large vote, where is it? It certainly does not appear in the returns. The National View, the Greenback organ of the party at Washington, says that fraud and intimidation ruled the election, and that the Greenbackers were simply bulldozed and defrauded.

Well, grant that this was the case. What is the remedy? Is it to divide the opposition to the Solid South and the Democratic party, and thus assist that organization to crush out all manner of opposition to their complete supremacy throughout the South?

We put this question to the men who call themselves Greenbackers in this Congressional district. They have no more chance to elect a candidate to Congress here than they have to elect one in Ohio. They can help elect Colonel Wilson, and that is all they can do. Every vote for Bassell is, as it was in 1878, an indirect vote for Colonel Wilson. The returns show that Bassell's vote united to Hubbard's would have elected the latter, and that Colonel Wilson really went to Congress by a minority vote.

Once elected to Congress, Colonel Wilson is a supporter of the Solid South. He and his party are responsible for the state of affairs in the South to-day. And certainly neither he nor his party have any claims on West Virginia Greenbackers after crushing them out so effectually in the Alabama election.

Is it not then a matter of the first importance to Greenbackers, as well as Republicans, that the power of the Solid South be broken? Unless this can be done, Greenbackism has no more chance there than Republicanism. The Democratic party is the foe of both. It has crushed out both in Alabama.

Col. Wilson stands on a hard money platform in this campaign. The convention that nominated him indorsed that hard money platform. It did not dare to renew a single one of its old declarations on the subject of greenbacks. It went clear back on its platform of two years ago. It also endorsed the free trade plank of the Cincinnati platform. Not a word do you find in the resolutions passed by the convention that renominated Col. Wilson in favor of a tariff. They accept the free trade platform adopted at Cincinnati as the creed of the party in this district.

Why then should any Greenbacker in this district cast, as in 1878, an indirect vote for Col. Wilson, by fooling away his vote on Col. Bassell? This is just what a vote for the latter amounts to. Bassell will not vote as many votes as in 1878, but all that he gets will simply accrue to the benefit of the representative of a party that has crushed out Greenbackism in Alabama, that has gone back on its financial principles, and has declared for free trade.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

The Republican Meeting on Monday—Personal News and Gossip.

FAIRVIEW, August 16.

Editors Intelligencer:

County Court met here yesterday; there were a good many in attendance. The people of Hancock are getting very tired of the County Court system and long for a change.

The Republicans of Hancock met yesterday at the Court House to hear the Hon. C. D. Hubbard and George C. Sturges discuss the political situation. There were a great many Republicans present. We also noticed some Democrats. The County Court adjourned at 2 P. M., giving their reason for the adjournment of the meeting. Hon. George C. Sturges spoke one hour and thirty-seven minutes, and his speech was a grand effort, and well received. He made many friends while here who will remember him in October next. Hon. C. D. Hubbard spoke for twenty-five minutes, and was also well received by all. They both spoke in New Cumberland Town Hall last night.

There are a few members of Carlin's battery residing here, and they all expect to attend the reunion in your city on the 20th of this month. We bespeak for them a pleasant time.

Doc Caldwell, of Wellburg, is attending Court here this week. The doctor has a large practice here.

The festival that was held here on last Tuesday night was a grand affair. There were about four hundred people present. The receipts were $221.78. We think that a grand showing for a country town.

Mr. Cyrus Beall and James Stray, of our town, paid a visit to their friend Geo. P. Dever, of Frankfort, Pa., last Sunday. William Dever and wife, of New Cumberland, were visiting Mrs. Beall last week.

We hear that the Hon. Thomas Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver a political speech here some time soon.

There has not been any break made in the wool market here as yet. Farmers are still holding firm.

Miss Lizzie Caldwell, of Burgetstown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Silverthorn, of our town, last week.

Miss Sarah Andrews, of Salineville, Ohio, is visiting at Mrs. Flower's this week.

The Democrats held their primaries on last Saturday, and appointed delegates to meet in County Convention in Martinsburg next Saturday to nominate county officers. We believe this is the first time in the history of our county that their nominations were made before the Republicans.

We heard a Democrat from our county, who was at the convention held in Wheeling last week, say that it was the most disgraceful meeting he ever attended, and that he never wanted to attend another such.

H. Y.